Legacy Information

Why make a will?

Making a will is incredibly easy and vitally important.

Without one, it will be left to the law to decide how your assets should be divided and it might not be what you want.

Getting started

We strongly recommend that you take professional advice when making your Will.

Not only does it cost less than you might think but it will give you peace of mind and ensure that your wishes are carried out.

'I can't express in words the impact you've had on us and our lives, we fully live them now and cherish our memories' (Parent)

It makes sense

- ✓ There are sound financial reasons for leaving a gift to charity.
- ✓ A charitable legacy is entirely free of Inheritance Tax.
- ✓ A gift of 10% could help reduce your inheritance tax liability. Your financial advisor will be able to explain the benefits and how they might apply to your own circumstance.
- ✓ Charitable legacies are a vital source of income for charities, amounting to around £2 billion each year. By leaving a gift you are helping the work of the charity to live on.

'Mosaic has made the difference between having a sad little boy defined by what had happened to a thriving little boy who is happy and confident in talking about his feelings' (Parent)

Mosaic... supporting bereaved children...

Why choose Mosaic?

Mosaic supports children and young people who have experienced the death of a parent or loved one.

Our aim is to give every bereaved child in Dorset who wants support the opportunity to have individual counselling and share their experience with others at residential weekends and activity days. This will reduce isolation, improve confidence and self-esteem and help them to reach their full potential in adult life and build resilience for future life events.

How do I leave a gift to Mosaic?

Please quote UK Registered Charity Number 1158138 when you are making your Will.

You can download our legacy clause wording from our website if you would like to document your wishes before you meet with your professional advisor.

'Always share your feelings and emotions with others' (Child)
